IMPERIAL GLASS PLANT TO START NEXT MONTH

Suspension Lasted Greater Part of Summer

MACHINES SATISFACTORY

Used With Great Success In Manufacture of Heavier
Grades of Ware

Preparations are being made for starting in full the Imperial Glass company's plant on or about September 15, after the usual summer shutdown. During the summer four English "Johnny Bull" bottle blowing machines have been operated at the plant in the making of the heavier ware, and these will be continued in operation. What was really in the nature of an experiment has proven remarkably successful.

At first the machines were used only on the large flint tank, but later they were changed to the amber and flint combined tank, while the former was being torn down and repairs made. These repairs were just completed this week after three weeks' work, record time being made.

The machines are at the present time turning out a good grade of ware much cheaper than could be done by hand, the saving being in the lesser number of boys employed and in the non-use of the "glory hole," where gas is burned for finishing.

At present as good work is being done on the machines as in some other factories which have been using them a year or more.

INDUCT FIFTY NEW MEMBERS INTO THE KLAN

Monongahela Ku Klux To Come in Numbers
Saturday

The Ku Klux Klan of Monongahela took in 50 new members last night at a meeting in preparation for the big day here Saturday which they expect to attend in uniform. Monongahela intends to send up besides the 300 or 400 members of the Ku Klux, a delegation numbering some 1,500 or more marchers and three bands. There is some rivalry among the various towns as to which can send the largest delegation.

Out for Sheriff
R. G. Lutton, deputy sheriff, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff next June. Mr. Lutton is a resident of Washington and is a son of the late Robert Lutton, a prominent farmer of North Strabane township. He was reared on the farm but came to Washington several years ago and has served as deputy in the office of Sheriff Murphy for nearly three years past.

LATE RUNS TO BE MADE NORTH AND SOUTH

Train service to Charleroi on the occasion of the opening of the Republican campaign on Saturday, September 3, has been arranged as follows:

Train leaves Marianna at 4:45 (regular train) with a number of extra coaches. Runs to Monongahela, picks up extra coaches there, and runs direct to Charleroi, not stopping at Donora.

Special train from Donora to Charleroi, 10 coaches, leaves Donora at 6:05 and arrives at Charleroi at 6:18.

Express from Pittsburg, leaving Pittsburg at 5:05 will have extra coaches to accommodate Americus Club and Monongahela City passengers.

Special train leaves Brownsville at 5 p. m., stopping at all way stations, arrives at Charleroi 5:38.

Special train returns to Brownsville and intermediate points about 11 p. m.

Special train returns to Pittsburg and intermediate points, about 11 p. m.

Special train returns to Marianna and intermediate points, about 11 p. m.

Epidemic of Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria Cause Closing of East Pike Run Schools

Strict Quarantine Established in One District and Care Will Be Taken to Prevent Diseases Spreading

NEW CASES OVERWORK PHYSICIANS IN THE DISTRICT

Several of the schools of East Pike Run township have been closed an account of an epidemic of scarlet fever and diphtheria, and on Monday Dr. C. B. Wood, of Monongahela, representative of the State Board of Health, declared a quarantine against Phillipsburg, a village in East Pike Run township, near California.

The schools of East Pike Run township were all to have opened Monday, including the four rooms of the Phillipsburg school. A number of cases of contagious diseases had been reported to exist in the township and several had been reported by attending physicians, but the extent of the epidemic was not guessed until after Dr. Wood visited Phillipsburg

Monday. Dr. Wood found 15 cases of scarlet fever in the village and three cases of diphtheria and immediately ordered the schools closed until the epidemic can be controlled. The Phillipsburg school building was fumigated and all the text books that had been given out were gathered in and thoroughly disinfected.

Dr. Wood also visited the new township school on the hill south of California, which was occupied for the first time Monday. Several cases of scarlet fever are reported on the hill, but all have been properly quarantined, so the Hill school will be permitted to continue unless there is a further outbreak of disease there.

HUNTING SEASON TO OPEN

With the dawn of tomorrow the restrictions placed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the hunting of several species of game in the State will be lifted. Dove, blackbird, red dird, coot or mud hen, rail, sandpiper, tatter, curlew, or any shore bird, may be killed from September 1 until January 1, with no restriction as to the number of birds killed in a day; Wilson or jacksnipe may be killed from September 1 until May 1; duck, goose, brant, swan, loon and grebe may be hunted from September 1 until April 10.

When October 15 arrives there will be something doing when the open season is declared on black, gray and fox squirrels, which may be killed to December 1; quail and wild turkey until November 16; ruffed grouse, Chinese, English and Mongolian pheasant until December 1. The open season for plover, either of the upland or grass varieties, was open on July 15 and will close on December 1. It is said that squirrels, quail,

ARRANGING TO HANDLE THE CROWD

Chief of Police C. W. Albright is making arrangements for the handling of the crowd on Saturday evening, and will have twelve extra men on his force. It is expected that the largest crowd ever seen in Charleroi will be here and it will take considerable effort to properly care for it. Officers of other towns may tender their assistance to Chief Albright.

Many at Sandy Plains
The Sandy Plains Fair opened yesterday for three days. Races are listed for today and Thursday, with an entry list that is bound to excite enthusiasm. Quite a number of people from Charleroi will go over Thursday to witness the events.

Resolved
That you will go and see the line of Post Cards for 1c at Might's Book store. 1812 pheasants and rabbits are unusually plentiful this year and the sportsmen are well pleased with the prospects.

CHARLEROI DIVISION TO BE PROPERLY EQUIPPED

Pennsy Provides
Weather Man

Pennywit Not Needed Now
Around The Local Station

The Pennsylvania railroad has added another extensive improvement to the local station in the shape of an elaborate sprinkling device. The sprinkling device is guaranteed to be in working order at all times, and ready for operation at a moment's notice, it being nothing more or less a 200 foot hose. The affair was put in operation yesterday afternoon.

FIREMEN WILL TURN OUT IN PARADE DRESS

Charleroi Division Will Be
Swelled by Local Volunteer Department

At a meeting of the Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department last night it was voted to turn out in the parade Saturday evening in uniform. The local firemen have a very natty parade uniform, and their appearance will give eclat to the Charleroi division. Chief J. M. Fleming desires all members to report promptly in uniform in time to be assigned their position in the procession which will start in the neighborhood of 7:30.

Two Charged With Killing

Co. oner James Heffran summoned a jury on Monday to inquire into the murder of Edward Craddock at Hoston Run on Sunday night, which, after hearing the testimony in the case returned a verdict, charging Steve Tanzil or Ernest Seccooni, with the crime and recommending that the authorities secure the arrest of both these men. The accused are Italians, and the authorities are looking for them.

Court Approves Roads
The court has handed down final decrees approving the roads recently approved by the grand jury, no exceptions to the same having been filed. The roads now ready for the improvement of the same are the Roscoe-Stockdale, Meadowslands-Houston, Taylorstown, "S" bridge, West Alexander-West Finley Shaw mine and Beallsville-Zeollarsville.

The Order of Parade
On an inside page is published the order of parade and the divisions as they will form Saturday. There will be a large number of bands.

Coming Back
Everybody that has bought any of the 1c Post Cards at Might's Book store. 1812

Local Marchers Will Wear Badges and Carry Banners

SPEAKING AFTER PARADE

Line of March Will Be Over Washington, Fallowfield and McKean

The Charleroi division of the big red fire parade to take place in Charleroi Saturday night as the opening event of the Republican State campaign is to be fully equipped with badges and banners, and it is predicted that the local enthusiasts will make a great showing. The Charleroi division will form at the head of the line of parade, giving the visiting delegates the right of precedent.

They will with the North Charleroi division form fronting on Seventh street on Washington avenue. This will be the eleventh division.

The parade will move at 7:30 o'clock. The line of parade will be on Washington, Fallowfield and McKean avenues between Ninth and Second streets. Speaking at the opera house will immediately follow the parade, speakers, candidates, vice presidents and others to occupy places on the stage.

BANK BOOK KEEPING

As it is practiced today is thoroughly taught in the Douglas Business College in addition to the regular course of bookkeeping. This course gives the student a good, practical working knowledge of the duties of the cashier, the assistant cashier, the teller, the discount clerk, the collection clerk, the correspondence clerk, the individual bookkeeper, the general bookkeeper, and the clearing house clerk. The books used in this course include the certificate book, the stock ledger, the general cash book, the general ledger, the individual ledger, the discount register, the discount tickler, the collection register, the collection tickler, the draft register, the remittance register, the certified check book, the teller's book, the daily statement, and the depositor's pass book.

Although the books used differ somewhat in different banks, and in different sections of the country, yet the student who has mastered this course thoroughly, will have no trouble in adapting himself to the system used in any bank.

Here is what one cashier of a bank has said about the course: "It gives us pleasure to address you concerning one of your graduates, Mr. Roy S. Tranberth, who is now in this bank's employ as teller and bookkeeper."

"His work from the beginning has been very satisfactory in every respect and we believe the instruction he received in your school aided him in being able to readily acquaint himself with this work."

"We believe your course will prove very beneficial to any young person desiring to acquaint himself with present day business methods."

Your very truly,
H. E. Scheuch, Cashier.

Why a Revolt?
Those malcontents who are trying so hard to foment political revolt in Pennsylvania cannot be actuated by sincere motives for reform and civic betterment, or they would readily see that they are wasting their efforts and money in the endeavor to organize a new party without an aim, issue or plausible excuse for existence. All that the so-called reformers can hope to accomplish must be through the medium of the voters, and if a majority of the latter are content with existing conditions, how can even a small fraction of the minority expect to enlist the majority to follow a contingent that has no assurance of changing conditions, nor can promise nothing that the voters themselves will not sanction by their ballot.
Time was when the nominations of both the old parties were controlled and dictated by individuals and factions. Now, with the uniform primary law, things are different. Not only are all candidates for municipal, county and State officers chosen by the people, but the partisan committeemen for each precinct, as well as the delegates to the State Convention that nominates the Governor and other State officials, are chosen by a direct vote of the people. When political bosses used to control affairs in the State the delegates were set up and selected by the county bosses, and many of them were chosen by county convention of packed delegates. The voters had no voice in the selection of candidates who could be chosen at will.
No new party can conduct affairs nor make nominations after it is established any different than the other parties. The same primary laws govern all parties. The proposed new party must effect and finance an organization only to be conducted along the same lines as other parties—by the sanction of the voters. That the voters of the Republican party do not take advantage of the power within their hands to effect a revolution, is prima facie evidence that there is no cause for revolution. If the voters believed they are bossed, there would be a fight in every county over the election of delegates to the State convention. That there is not, is evidence that the majority of the people have no kick coming.

Good for Charleroi
Charleroi is getting a big lot of advertising these days. The opening of the State Republican campaign here next Saturday, Sept. 3, has focused all eyes on our town, and everywhere, throughout the State, people are talking and thinking about Charleroi. Not only will all the representative newspapers throughout the State send special staff writers to report the meeting, but hundreds of prominent people from distant quarters will be present, in addition to the vast throngs from nearby points that will flock here to the reception to John K. Tener, the Republican candidate for Governor, and his colleagues. It is therefore incumbent upon the people of Charleroi to put their best foot forward and make a favorable impression upon the visitors.
This prominence will surely work to the advantage of Charleroi. Visitors from a distance cannot help but be impressed with the showing of the Monongahela valley in general and Charleroi in particular. This should be taken advantage of in every particular manner by our citizens, who should make it a point to entertain the guests and extend to them every possible courtesy and point out things that made Charleroi great.

Several autoists we know have so got into the habit of turning short corners that even when they are walking around one on the sidewalk they are to likely collide with you.
The Washington Observer discovers that there is an absolute lack of enthusiasm in this county for the opening of the Republican State campaign in Charleroi Saturday. But then the Observer is always making so many discoveries which apparently spring from a distorted vision and a sorehead disposition that it is only another indication of the truth of the proverb that "there is none so blind as he who will not see."
A brilliant conversationalist is not always a person with the greatest gift for gab.
A policeman has been described as a never present help in time of trouble but such is not the case in Charleroi, where the police auto patrol is engaged in the pleasant occupation of chasing wrong doers.
Shakespeare wasn't thinking about the ornery little brats who steal peaches from the trees in the back yard when he wrote about "mercy."
One nice thing about school is that it means protection for your property a few more hours each day.
Many people who try to make a cloak of religion haven't enough of it to make a decent French bathing suit.
How will T. R. ever settle down again to the prosaic round of the tranquil east? ask an exchange.
Why bless you, T. R. never pretended to settle down in either the prosaic east or wild west.
The man who is given to the blues because "nobody loves him" and his hands are cold should remember that his mother loves him and he can sit on his hands.
SISTER'S TRIP.
Sister's home from her trip.
And she's panting for breath.
She's unpacking her grip.
Talking us all to death—
What she did, what she saw,
What she heard, what she said—
She is working her jaw—
How she slept, how she fed,
How she danced, how she sang
And was encircled again.
Thus she ends her harangue:
"I met four dandy men."
Sister's home from her trip.
Father, mother and I
Haven't opened a lip
For a day or an eye.
It was fine! It was great!
All the meals were immense,
And she tipped as she ate.
What asked she for expense?
Everybody was kind
And so good—but, oh, then
That brings back to mind,
She met four dandy men.
Sister's home from her trip.
All the neighbors have heard
What she saw on the ship
And all things that occurred,
And I fear many days
Will have come and have passed
Ere her paragon of prattle
Shall be silenced at last.
Sister's home from her trip,
Let me tell you again,
And while on the ship
She met four dandy men.

Fortunes Being Made On An Outlay of 4¢ a Day per Acre
Big Profits Being Made Growing Oranges and Lemons in the Sacramento Valley, California

Each new day opens on scenes of good fortune and prosperity achieved by once dissatisfied men and women, who, tired of grubbing for a living on worn-out eastern farms, have taken up land in the beautiful Sacramento Valley, California. This will soon be one of the richest farm and fruit districts in the world, watered as it is by irrigating streams from the Sacramento River. The Sacramento Valley Irrigation Company, headed by Mr. W. S. Kuhn, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is in charge of this project.
Oranges and Lemons.
Oranges and lemons ripen here six weeks earlier than in the Los Angeles district and the southern part of the State. This is because the entire Sacramento Valley is hedged in on the north, east and west by high mountain ranges, which protect it from the cold winds of the Pacific Ocean and the hot blasts from the surrounding country, making it—as Luther Burbank described it—
"The Nation's Greenhouse."
But products are not confined to oranges and lemons alone. Everything grows in extravagant profusion—almonds, apricots, alfalfa, asparagus, beans, blackberries, cherries, sugar beets, figs, grape fruit, grapes, logan berries, olives, potatoes, peaches, plums, strawberries, tomatoes, walnuts—net profit per acre, as actually shown by official figures, ranging from $30 to $400 per acre—oranges and lemons often producing as high as $2,500 to $3,000 per acre.
Climate Best in the World.
No damaging snows, frosts, droughts, blizzards, washouts, or any of these eastern misfortunes. Irrigating water always at hand. More sunshiny days than Southern Italy.
H. L. HOLLISTER & COMPANY,
J. H. SIMPSON, Resident Manager, 845 Fourth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Hungry markets close at hand ensure quick conversion of crops into cash. Roads radiate in all directions from property which is on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad. Only 88 miles to Sacramento, 150 miles to San Francisco. Sacramento River open to freight navigation the year round.
Land Costs 4 Cents a Day Per Acre.
Four cents a day per acre is all it costs to buy this marvelously productive land—with permanent water rights granted by the State of California and confirmed by Act of Congress. The land actually pays for itself—producing profits greatly in excess of the very moderate payment, which may be extended over a period of ten years, if desired.
We help you move, and give you every possible assistance in getting to California comfortably and cheaply.
This is Your Opportunity.
Come now—while the selection is still good. You've got to get out of the rut. This is the time to do it. People in California are living and enjoying life. They are making money. They will make more. They get what they work for. The same opportunity is yours.
Take the first step NOW by writing for our beautifully illustrated book, "California. Now or Never." This book costs you ten cents. This charge does not begin to cover its real cost—but is made merely that we may be assured of your earnestness. Don't delay, don't question, don't doubt. But write for the book. It proves all that we have said, and more. Mail the attached coupon NOW.

WELL KNOWN MAN MISSING

A. B. Richardson, a wealthy Bentleyville farmer 70 years old, is missing from his home. He has been absent since Monday, when he left on horseback after drawing $25 from the bank. It is known that he went to Monongahela, but the police and others who are working on the case have been unable to learn where he went after that. It is thought possible he may be on his way to Ohio, having signified his intention some time ago to go there and visit his son. It is said he suffered strokes of paralysis recently which may have affected his mind.

AGREEMENTS ARE REACHED

After being out on strike one day over some differences regarding the method of removing pillars at the Black Diamond mines, the miners went back to work yesterday, and now the mine is running nearly full time. The question at issue was somewhat complicated, as it concerned the relative merits of the machine and hand method of removing pillars. The miners thought the former method was dangerous.

Eagles plan Excursion
The Fraternal Order of Eagles of Ellsworth, are planning a boat ride on the Monongahela for next Sunday. According to the arrangement, they will come to Monongahela and embark on the packet at that point, going up the river and returning on the down boat.

TEACHER SECURED

The Turn Verein societies of Charleroi, Monessen and Monongahela have joined in securing one of the most capable turn instructors in Western Pennsylvania in the person of E. T. Schlielis, of Pittsburgh. He will divide his time between the three towns being in Monessen on Monday and Thursday evenings, in Monongahela on Tuesday and Friday evenings, and in Charleroi on Wednesday and Saturdays.

ON WAY HOME FOR VISIT WITH FRIENDS

Friends of Lieutenant Rea W. Furlong, of the U. S. Navy, have received word that he and his bride are "homeward bound," and are now visiting at the home of his aunt, Dr. Florence Grant Dressler, in Chicago. They will soon start for Pennsylvania. The wedding of Lieutenant Furlong and Miss Cora Glover was on August 11th, and took place at the bride's home in Tacoma, Washington, announcement of which has been made before. While in this vicinity Lieut. Furlong and his bride will visit his home folks and relatives and friends in this vicinity.
Thursday at 5:30 o'clock the Episcopal and Catholics will line up in a struggle for supremacy in a benefit contest for the Monessen-Charleroi hospital. These teams finished in first and second places respectively, and a good game is expected. Another game will be played later and a third in case one team does not run away with the first two contests.

Lanterns To Form Part of Decorations

The committees in charge of the preparations for Saturday's rally have asked that persons living along the route of the parade decorate their homes. The committees have not made any suggestions as to the nature of the decorations, but many are expecting to use Japanese and Chinese lanterns, which at night present a beautiful appearance.

FAREWELL DINNER TO COLLEGE MAN

Perce D. Pollock entertained at a "stag" dinner at his home on Look-out avenue last night in honor of Edward D. Butz, who, after spending the summer here, left this morning for his home in Wilkesbarre, and will later take up his studies as a senior at State College. There were about ten present and a pleasant evening was spent.

RED MEN TO HOLD BIG DEMONSTRATION

Arrangements are being completed for a big demonstration in Donora by the Red Men, in charge of Ahmeek's Tribe, No. 446, on October 7. Tribes from all over this section of the state will be represented, and an immense parade and sham battle are to be features.
"Second Baseman Going Home"
Edward Butz, of Wilkesbarre, who has been employed at the Charleroi Coal works during the summer left this morning for his home where he will visit previous to taking up his studies at State College. He played second base during the summer for the Lutheran team.

Plenty In Reserve.
A man who had been fighting got two black eyes. Next morning he met a friend, who exclaimed: "Why, Jack, where have you been? You've got two black eyes!" "That's nothing," he replied. "I could have got plenty more, only I had no place to put them."

Pleasant.

ADOLPH OF COURSE

LABOR VOTE WILL LINE UP FOR TENER

Republican Nominee Popular With Workingmen.

FROM MILL BOY TO GOVERNOR

Former President of Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers Tells of Interest of Candidate in Wage-earners.

[Special Correspondence.]

Pittsburg, Aug. 30.

Although the gubernatorial campaign in Pennsylvania has hardly gotten well under way, one fact has been demonstrated, and that is that John Kinley Tener, the Republican nominee for governor, is going to be one of the most popular candidates with the workingmen that ever ran on a state ticket.

This is not surprising to those familiar with his record and who have followed his course both in private and public life.

His whole history is that of a man who has worked hard himself and who is in full sympathy with labor by reason of his associations with the wage earners from his boyhood days.

Any one who, like Mr. Tener, had to begin at the very bottom of life's ladder and depend upon his own energy and resources to win success can appreciate his concern for the welfare of his fellow men, especially those who make up the great industrial army of this state and nation.

"From Mill Boy to Governor." is a slogan already heard among the enthusiastic admirers of a former worker in one of the great steel plants of western Pennsylvania, and as the canvass shall progress and the great body of the voters shall become more intimately acquainted with the career and the policies of the Republican nominee for governor, it is predicted that he will grow in popularity and strength with the inevitable result—an overwhelming victory at the polls on Nov. 8.

An idea of the enthusiasm with which the nomination of Mr. Tener is being received and of the reasons for the interest shown in his candidacy by representatives of organized labor, may be had from a chat with M. M. Garland, a former president of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers, who has known Mr. Tener for many years.

Appreciation of a Co-Worker.

"John K. Tener is essentially a self-made man," said Mr. Garland. "He has ever been interested in the cause of the workingman, and today classes among his very best friends men who have been and are high in the ranks of labor organizations.

"Tener's first occupation was as an errand boy and then as assistant shipping clerk at the mill of Lewis, Oliver & Phillips, South Side, Pittsburg. He was then advanced to pay roll clerk. His associates were the men of the mills, and it was while he was employed at the plant of the Olivers, at South Tenth street, he formed very close friendships with Miles P. Humphreys, who had just retired as president of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers, then in charge of the puddling and muck iron departments; the late William Wolke, then a putterer; Jack Davis, a well known boss roller, and others who were high in labor circles.

Once Ran a Locomotive.

"Tener spent most of his spare time in the mills and mill yards, and as a result he obtained a thorough knowledge of the practical end of the business. He soon mastered locomotive engineering and was often found on the engines in and about the plant and when a regular engineer was called on account of sickness he would take his place for weeks at a time.

"When Tener left the industrial field to take up base ball he was a firm believer in organization, and during the closing months of 1885 he, with several other base ball players, joined in a movement which resulted in the Brotherhood of Base Ball Players, and which had for its object the betterment of the conditions then imposed upon the players, and the extent of this move has had its effect ever since.

"Tener became a resident of Charleroi at its inception, and is known to nearly every man, woman and child in that town, and as the men pass by they address him as 'John,' and he in turn salutes them as 'Hello, Bill,' or 'How are you, Sam?' as the case may be.

As a Friend of Labor.

"For several years he was engaged in the glass business at Buckhannon, West Virginia, where only union men were employed, and in all business in which he has been engaged or has had a controlling interest, the very highest wages have been paid. At the beginning of the strike at the Macbeth-Evans glass factory at Charleroi the men appealed to Tener, and he was instrumental in securing a conference between representatives of the workmen and their employers. He was again called upon during a strike at the works of the Charleroi Coal company to intercede in behalf of the miners, and in this he was successful in assisting in an agreement satisfactory to both sides and winning the praise of the wage earners.

"Tener was sent to congress with the unanimous endorsement of the labor organizations in the Twenty-fourth district, he having declared for an eight-hour law. At the second session of the Sixty-first congress he introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of labor conditions in the mills and factories in western Pennsylvania, which went to the committee on rules, which body, as every one knows, was soon after the center of a bitter fight, resulting in the delay of this and other creditable proposed legislation. He is a firm believer in arbitration, as his close friends well know.

"Tener's political enemies have unsuccessfully endeavored to make political capital out of the story that when the Hughes injunction amendment was before the house of representatives he was recorded as 'not voting,' but they failed to add that at that time he was paired with Representative Taylor, a Democrat, of Alabama, who was absent from Washington, as will be shown on page 5222 of the Congressional Record, and it would have been the height of courtesy and dishonesty to have acted otherwise.

"While Tener has been liberal to all local charities, his name has always been found among the contributors to the funds for the widows and children of the unfortunate men killed in the mines and factories, and more than one home has been brightened as the result of his generosity.

"I predict his election by one of the largest majorities ever given a candidate for governor in Pennsylvania."

REFORMERS REFUSE TO SUPPORT BERRY

Leading Men in William Penn Party
For Republican State Ticket.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Aug. 30. The most significant and important development of the state campaign thus far is found in the refusal of prominent and potential men in the William Penn Party in this city to support the Berry-Casey Democratic combination on the Keystone Party ticket.

The fact that thousands of voters who have been allied with reform movements intend to support the full Republican state ticket, including the nominees for congress, has necessitated the withdrawal of the William Penn Party from the field, and the men who are behind the Berry candidacy are now seeking to marshal their Pastafian outfit under the banner of the hybrid Keystone Party.

At a meeting of the city committee of the William Penn Party a few nights ago, when that organization went out of business for this campaign, members of the committee very frankly admitted that a large percentage of the citizens who have been voting the Penn ticket are Republicans in national and state affairs, while voting independently in municipal contests. It was acknowledged that they intend to support John K. Tener and all of his colleagues on the Republican state ticket, and making members of the type of Theodore Justice John C. Winson and others who have been among the heaviest contributors to local independent movements are out in public declarations of their purpose to stand by the Republican state nominees.

Cannot Stand a Bryanite.

Not only with Mr. Tener and his associates receive the support of this element but they will also have the votes of thousands of Philadelphia independents who might under certain conditions back an independent Republican for governor, but who under no circumstances would support a radical Bryanite Democrat like Berry.

The loss of these two elements of the reform forces has completely demoralized the soldiers of fortune who are behind the Berry movement, following the attacks of Democratic politicians upon whom they confidently counted to stand by Berry.

The aggressive campaign waged for Senator Grim, the Democratic nominee for governor, has resulted in a lining up of the Democratic workers in the regular Democratic organization. Democratic leaders who were expected to be for Berry have come out for Grim, in order to retain their standing with the Democracy. Where they have failed to do so they have been asked to resign or been expelled from Democratic committees.

Eugene C. Bonniwell, Berry's campaign manager, threatened with expulsion, has resigned from the chairmanship of the Delaware county Democratic committee.

While the Berry Democrats and the Grim Democrats are fighting among themselves reports from all over the state indicate harmony among the Republicans. Chairman Henry F. Walter and Secretary W. Harry Baker, of the Republican state committee, have the preliminary work up to date and have their plans matured for an aggressive campaign.

Gubernatorial Candidate Tener and his colleagues, Messrs. Reynolds, Wright and Houck, will address a meeting at Charleroi on Saturday Sept. 3, when Mr. Tener's neighbors propose to make a great demonstration in his honor.

They will be in Pittsburg on Labor Day, Sept. 5; in Philadelphia, Sept. 10; at the State League of Republican clubs, Pottsville, Sept. 15, and in Lehigh county on Sept. 17.

On the Running Road.

"He hardly knows what office he's running for. Almost any one he happens to bump into will do. Just wants something or other to give him a running reason. A rainbow would answer if it would stay long enough for him to get to the end of it!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A Queer Case.

"When are they to be married?" "She doesn't know. She is worried because she is not quite sure of herself." "That's a new one on me. I thought a girl worried when she wasn't quite sure of the man."—Pittsburg Post.

Cause of the Drop.

"Miss Passay is furious with that society reporter." "Why so?" "He published the announcement of her approaching wedding under the column headed 'Late Engagements.'"—Life.

A Riot in Colors.

"Soakwell's nose looks as if he had worn a mustard plaster on it." "Yes. I'm so sorry for his dear wife. She had just ordered her spring dresses in pale blue and green."

Oh, Joy!

"Don't you love to see the happy little children going to the beach?" "Yes, especially if they are the noly ones who live next door."—Buffalo Express.

Grace.

"Has he any saving grace?" "Why, yes; he has a penurious daughter of that name."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NEW TALES THAT ARE TOLD

Belvidere Brooks' Poor Guess.

Colonel Belvidere Brooks, general manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, with headquarters in New York, was a recent visitor in Los Angeles. While walking up Broadway with W. L. Lamb, local manager, Mr. Brooks remarked repeatedly on the glorious climate and also on the fine appearance of the women he saw thronging the street and stores.

Out of a big emporium came a dashing brunette of Juno-like form, head up, breast out, eyes bright, her whole ensemble breathing the joy of life. As she sailed by the two gentlemen with a long, swinging, graceful stride she nodded and smiled brightly at Mr. Lamb.

"IT'S ALL OWING TO THE GLORIOUS CLIMATE."

"Whew!" whistled Brooks. "What a form, what eyes, what grace! Indeed, there is an object lesson on your beautiful climate. Puts me in mind of the remark the old judge made in the play 'The Danites.' 'It's all owing to the glorious climate of California.'" Mr. Lamb looked up at his general manager and grinned.

"Get back on your base, Brooks, or you will be put out," he said. "You are to be commended for the evident sincerity of your admiration for the young lady we just met, but you are off on climatic conditions. That young lady is a relative of mine, and she hails from Arkansas."

Then Brooks began looking for a place where they didn't sell dry goods.

Ah, Who Knows?

"Do you know," she said, "I didn't want to come to this place at all. I had an idea that it would be awfully stupid."

"And haven't you found it stupid?" he asked.

"You know I haven't."

"How should I know?"

"No place could be stupid if you were there."

"It is very nice of you to say so."

"I shall be very sorry when you leave. It has been the most glorious week of my life."

"I am glad to know that, but I hope there may be many more glorious weeks in store for you."

After he had gone to the tennis court and left her alone on the wide veranda she sighed and said to herself:

"How glad it is that a woman is denied the right to tell a man she cares for him! Who knows what would have happened if I might have told him all?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Charleroi People Should Know
How to Read and Heed Them

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions are dark, contain a sediment. Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent. The weakened kidneys need quick help. Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. Charleroi evidence proves this statement.

Mrs. H. Rowe, 1005 McKean avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Piper Bros. Drug Store have been used in our family for backache and other kidney disorders with the best of results. I consider this remedy to be one that lives up to the claims made for it."

IMPERIAL GLASS PLANT TO START NEXT MONTH

Suspension Lasted Greater Part of Summer
MACHINES SATISFACTORY
Used With Great Success In Manufacture of Heavier Grades of Ware

Preparations are being made for starting in full the Imperial Glass company's plant on or about September 15, after the usual summer shut-down. During the summer four English "Johnny Bull" bottle blowing machines have been operated at the plant in the making of the heavier ware, and these will be continued in operation. What was really in the nature of an experiment has proven remarkably successful.

At first the machines were used only on the large flint tank, but later they were changed to the amber and flint combined tank, while the former was being torn down and repairs made. These repairs were just completed this week after three weeks' work, record time being made.

The machines are at the present time turning out a good grade of ware much cheaper than could be done by hand, the saving being in the lesser number of boys employed and in the non-use of the "glory hole," where gas is burned for finishing.

At present as good work is being done on the machines as in some other factories which have been using them a year or more.

INDUCT FIFTY NEW MEMBERS INTO THE KLAN

Monongahela Ku Klux To Come in Numbers Saturday

The Ku Klux Klan of Monongahela took in 50 new members last night at a meeting in preparation for the big day here Saturday which they expect to attend in uniform. Monongahela intends to send up besides the 300 or 400 members of the Ku Klux, a delegation numbering some 1,500 or more marchers and three bands. There is some rivalry among the various towns as to which can send the largest delegation.

Epidemic of Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria Cause Closing of East Pike Run Schools

Strict Quarantine Established in One District and Care Will Be Taken to Prevent Diseases Spreading

NEW CASES OVERWORK PHYSICIANS IN THE DISTRICT

Several of the schools of East Pike Run township have been closed an account of an epidemic of scarlet fever and diphtheria, and on Monday Dr. C. B. Wood, of Monongahela, representative of the State Board of Health, declared a quarantine against Phillipsburg, a village in East Pike Run township, near California.

The schools of East Pike Run township were all to have opened Monday, including the four rooms of the Phillipsburg school. A number of cases of contagious diseases had been reported to exist in the township and several had been reported by attending physicians, but the extent of the epidemic was not guessed until after Dr. Wood visited Phillipsburg Monday.

Dr. Wood found 15 cases of scarlet fever in the village and three cases of diphtheria and immediately ordered the schools closed until the epidemic can be controlled.

The Phillipsburg school building was fumigated and all the text books that had been given out were gathered in and thoroughly disinfected.

Dr. Wood also visited the new township school on the hill south of California, which was occupied for the first time Monday. Several cases of scarlet fever are reported on the hill, but all have been properly quarantined, so the Hill school will be permitted to continue unless there is a further outbreak of disease there.

HUNTING SEASON TO OPEN

With the dawn of tomorrow the restrictions placed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the hunting of several species of game in the State will be lifted. Dove, blackbird, red bird, coot or mud hen, rail, sandpiper, tatter, curlew, or any shore bird, may be killed from September 1 until January 1, with no restriction as to the number of birds killed in a day; Wilson or jacksnipe may be killed from September 1 until May 1; duck, goose, brant, swan, loon and grebe may be hunted from September 1 until April 10.

When October 15 arrives there will be something doing when the open season is declared on black, gray and fox squirrels, which may be killed to December 1; quail and wild turkey until November 16; ruffed grouse, Chinese, English and Mongolian pheasant until December 1. The open season for plover, either of the upland or grass varieties, was open on July 15 and will close on December 1.

It is said that squirrels, quail, pheasants and rabbits are unusually plentiful this year and the sportsmen are well pleased with the prospects.

ARRANGING TO HANDLE THE CROWD

Chief of Police C. W. Albright is making arrangements for the handling of the crowd on Saturday evening, and will have twelve extra men on his force. It is expected that the largest crowd ever seen in Charleroi will be here and it will take considerable effort to properly care for it. Officers of other towns may tender their assistance to Chief Albright.

Many at Sandy Plains
The Sandy Plains Fair opened yesterday for three days. Races are listed for today and Thursday, with an entry list that is bound to excite enthusiasm. Quite a number of people from Charleroi will go over Thursday to witness the events.

CHARLEROI DIVISION TO BE PROPERLY EQUIPPED

Pennsy Provides Weather Man

Pennywit Not Needed Now Around The Local Station

The Pennsylvania railroad has added another extensive improvement to the local station in the shape of an elaborate sprinkling device. The sprinkling device is guaranteed to be in working order at all times, and ready for operation at a moment's notice, it being nothing more or less a 200 foot hose. The affair was put in operation yesterday afternoon.

FIREMEN WILL TURN OUT IN PARADE DRESS

Charleroi Division Will Be Swelled by Local Volunteer Department

At a meeting of the Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department last night it was voted to turn out in the parade Saturday evening in uniform. The local firemen have a very natty parade uniform, and their appearance will give eclat to the Charleroi division. Chief J. M. Fleming desires all members to report promptly in uniform in time to be assigned their position in the procession which will start in the neighborhood of 7:30.

Two Charged With Killing

Coroner James Heffran summoned a jury on Monday to inquire into the murder of Edward Craddock at Huston Run on Sunday night, which, after hearing the testimony in the case returned a verdict, charging Steve Tanzil or Ernest Seconil, with the crime and recommending that the authorities secure the arrest of both these men. The accused are Italians, and the authorities are looking for them.

Court Approves Roads

The court has handed down final decrees approving the roads recently approved by the grand jury, no exceptions to the same having been filed. The roads now ready for the improvement of the same are the Roscoe-Stockdale, Meadowlands-Houston, Taylorstown, "S" bridge, West Alexander-West Finley Shaw mine and Beallsville-Zeollarsville.

The Order of Parade

On an inside page is published the order of parade and the divisions as they will form Saturday. There will be a large number of bands.

Local Marchers Will Wear Badges and Carry Banners

SPEAKING AFTER PARADE

Line of March Will Be Over Washington, Fallowfield and McKean

The Charleroi division of the big red fire parade to take place in Charleroi Saturday night as the opening event of the Republican State campaign is to be fully equipped with badges and banners, and it is predicted that the local enthusiasts will make a great showing. The Charleroi division will form at the head of the line of parade, giving the visiting delegates the right of precedent.

They will with the North Charleroi division form fronting on Seventh street on Washington avenue. This will be the eleventh division.

The parade will move at 7:30 o'clock. The line of parade will be on Washington, Fallowfield and McKean avenues between Ninth and Second streets. Speaking at the opera house will immediately follow the parade, speakers, candidates, vice presidents and others to occupy places on the stage.

BANK BOOK KEEPING

As it is practiced today is thoroughly taught in the Douglas Business College in addition to the regular course of bookkeeping. This course gives the student a good, practical working knowledge of the duties of the cashier, the assistant cashier, the teller, the discount clerk, the collection clerk, the correspondence clerk, the individual bookkeeper, the general bookkeeper, and the clearing house clerk. The books used in this course include the certificate book, the stock ledger, the general cash book, the general ledger, the individual ledger, the discount register, the discount tickler, the collection register, the collection tickler, the draft register, the remittance register, the certified check book, the teller's book, the daily statement, and the depositor's pass book.

Although the books used differ somewhat in different banks, and in different sections of the country, yet the student who has mastered this course thoroughly, will have no trouble in adapting himself to the system used in any bank.

Here is what one cashier of a bank has said about the course:

"It gives us pleasure to address you concerning one of your graduates, Mr. Roy S. Tranterth, who is now in this bank's employ as teller and bookkeeper."

"His work from the beginning has been very satisfactory in every respect and we believe the instruction he received in your school aided him in being able to readily acquaint himself with this work."

"We believe your course will prove very beneficial to any young person desiring to acquaint himself with present day business methods."

Your very truly,
H. E. Scheuck, Cashier.

Why a Revolt?

Those malcontents who are trying so hard to foment political revolt in Pennsylvania cannot be actuated by sincere motives for reform and civic betterment, or they would readily see that they are wasting their efforts and money in the endeavor to organize a new party without an aim, issue or plausible excuse for existence.
All that the so-called reformers can hope to accomplish must be through the medium of the voters, and if a majority of the latter are content with existing conditions, how can even a small fraction of the minority expect to enlist the majority to follow a contingent that has no assurance of changing conditions, nor can promise themselves that the voters themselves will not sanction by their ballot.

Time was when the nominations of both the old parties were controlled and dictated by individuals and factions. Now, with the uniform primary law, things are different. Not only are all candidates for municipal, county and State officers chosen by the people, but the partisan committeemen for each precinct, as well as the delegates to the State Convention that nominates the Governor and other State officials, are chosen by a direct vote of the people. When political bosses used to control affairs in the State the delegates were set up and selected by the county bosses, and many of them were chosen by county convention of packed delegates. The voters had no voice in the selection of candidates who could be chosen at will.

No new party can conduct affairs nor make nominations after it is established any different than the other parties. The same primary laws govern all parties.
The proposed new party must effect and finance an organization only to be conducted along the same lines as the other parties—by the sanction of the voters. That the voters of the Republican party do not take advantage of the power within their hands to effect a revolution, is prima facie evidence that there is no cause for revolution. If the voters believed they are bossed, there would be a fight in every county over the election of delegates to the State convention. That there is not, is evidence that the majority of the people have no kick coming.

Good for Charleroi

Charleroi is getting a big lot of advertising these days. The opening of the State Republican campaign here next Saturday, Sept. 3, has focused all eyes on our town, and everywhere, throughout the State, people are talking and thinking about Charleroi. Not only will all the representative newspapers throughout the State
send special staff writers to report the meeting, but hundreds of prominent people from distant quarters will be present, in addition to the vast throngs from nearby points that will flock here to the reception to John K. Tener, the Republican candidate for Governor, and his colleagues. It is therefore incumbent upon the people of Charleroi to put their best foot forward and make a favorable impression upon the visitors.

This prominence will surely work to the advantage of Charleroi. Visitors from a distance cannot help but be impressed with the showing of the Monongahela valley in general and Charleroi in particular. This should be taken advantage of in every particular manner by our citizens, who should make it a point to entertain the guests and extend to them every possible courtesy and point out things that made Charleroi great.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Several autoists we know have so got into the habit of turning short corners that even when they are walking around one on the sidewalk
they are to likely collide with you.

The Washington Observer discovers that there is an absolute lack of enthusiasm in this county for the opening of the Republican State campaign in Charleroi Saturday. But then the Observer is always making so many discoveries which apparently spring from a distorted vision and a sorehead disposition that it is only another indication of the truth of the proverb that "there is none so blind as he who will not see."

A brilliant conversationalist is not always a person with the greatest gift for gab.

A policeman has been described as a never present help in time of trouble
but such is not the case in Charleroi, where the police auto patrol is engaged in the pleasant occupation of chasing wrong doers.

Shakespeare wasn't thinking about the ornery little brats who steal peaches from the trees in the back yard when he wrote about "mercy."

One nice thing about school is that it means protection for your property
a few more hours each day.

Many people who try to make a cloak of religion haven't enough of it to make a decent French bathing suit.

How will T. R. ever settle down again to the prosaic round of the tranquil east? asks an exchange.
Why bless you, T. R. never pretended to settle down in either the prosaic east or wild west.

The man who is given to the blues because "nobody loves him" and his hands are cold should remember that his mother loves him and he can sit on his hands.

SISTER'S TRIP.

Sister's home from her trip.
And she's panting for breath.
She's unpacking her grip.
Talking us all to death—
What she did, what she saw,
What she heard, what she said—
Sis is working her jaw—
How she slept, how she fed,
How she danced, how she sang
And was snored again.
Thus she ends her harangue:
"I met four dandy men."

Sister's home from her trip.
Father, mother and I
Haven't opened a lip
For a day or an eye.
It was fine, it was great!
All the meals were immense,
And she tipped as she ate.
What cared she for expense?
Everybody was kind
And so good—but, oh, then
That brings back to mind,
She met four dandy men.

Sister's home from her trip.
All the neighbors have heard
What she saw on the ship
And all things that occurred,
And I fear many days
Will have come and have passed
Ere her pacan of prates
Shall be silenced at last.

Sister's home from her trip.
Let me tell you again,
And while on the ship
She met four dandy men.

Big Profits Being Made Growing Oranges and Lemons in the Sacramento Valley, California

Each new day opens on scenes of good fortune and prosperity achieved by once dissatisfied men and women, who, tired of grubbing for a living on worn-out eastern farms, have taken up land in the beautiful Sacramento Valley, California.

This will soon be one of the richest farm and fruit districts in the world, watered as it is by irrigating streams from the Sacramento River. The Sacramento Valley Irrigation Company, headed by Mr. W. S. Kuhn, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is in charge of this project.

Oranges and Lemons.

Oranges and lemons ripen here six weeks earlier than in the Los Angeles district and the southern part of the State.
This is because the entire Sacramento Valley is hedged in on the north, east and west by high mountain ranges, which protect it from the cold winds of the Pacific Ocean and the hot blasts from the surrounding country, making it—as Luther Burbank described it—

"The Nation's Greenhouse."

But products are not confined to oranges and lemons alone. Everything grows in extravagant profusion—almonds, apricots, alfalfa, asparagus, beans, blackberries, cherries, sugar beets, figs, grape fruit, grapes, logan berries, olives, potatoes, peaches, prunes, plums, strawberries, tomatoes, walnuts—net profit per acre, as actually shown by official figures, ranging from $50 to $400 per acre—oranges and lemons often producing as high as $2,500 to $3,000 per acre.

Climate Best in the World.

No damaging snows, frosts, droughts, blizzards, washouts, or any of these eastern misfortunes. Irrigating water always at hand. More sunshiny days than Southern Italy.

H. L. HOLLISTER &amp; COMPANY,

J. H. SIMPSON, Resident Manager, 345 Fourth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Hungry markets close at hand ensure quick conversion of crops into cash. Roads radiate in all directions from property which is on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad.
Only 88 miles to Sacramento, 150 miles to San Francisco.
Sacramento River open to freight navigation the year round.

Land Costs 4 Cents a Day Per Acre.

Four cents a day per acre is all it costs to buy this marvelously productive land—with permanent water rights granted by the State of California and confirmed by Act of Congress. The land actually pays for itself—producing profits greatly in excess of the very moderate payment, which may be extended over a period of ten years, if desired.

We help you move, and give you every possible assistance in getting to California comfortably and cheaply.

This is Your Opportunity.

Come now—while the selection is still good. You've got to get out of the rut. This is the time to do it. People in California are living and enjoying life. They are making money. They will make more. They get what they work for. The same opportunity is yours.

WELL KNOWN MAN MISSING

A. B. Richardson, a wealthy Bentleyville farmer 70 years old, is missing from his home. He has been absent since Monday, when he left on horseback after drawing $25 from the bank. It is known that he went to Monongahela, but the police and others who are working on the case have been unable to learn where he went after that. It is thought possible he may be on his way to Ohio, having signified his intention some time ago to go there and visit his son.
It is said he suffered strokes of paralysis recently which may have affected his mind.

AGREEMENTS ARE REACHED

After being out on strike one day over some differences regarding the method of removing pillars at the Black Diamond mines, the miners went back to work yesterday, and now the mine is running nearly full time. The question at issue was somewhat complicated, as it concerned the relative merits of the machine and hand method of removing pillars.
The miners thought the former method was dangerous.

Eagles plan Excursion

The Fraternal Order of Eagles of Ellsworth, are planning a boat ride on the Monongahela for next Sunday.
According to the arrangement, they will come to Monongahela and embark on the packet at that point, going up the river and returning on the down boat.

TEACHER SECURED

The Turn Verein societies of Charleroi, Monessen and Monongahela have joined in securing one of the most capable turn instructors in Western Pennsylvania in the person of E. T. Schliel, of Pittsburg. He will divide his time between the three towns being in Monessen on Monday and Thursday evenings, in Monongahela on Tuesday and Friday evenings, and in Charleroi on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

ON WAY HOME FOR VISIT WITH FRIENDS

Friends of Lieutenant Rea W.
Furlong, of the U. S. Navy, have received word that he and his bride are "homeward bound," and are now visiting at the home of his aunt, Dr. Florence Grant Dressler, in Chicago. They will soon start for Pennsylvania.

The wedding of Lieutenant Furlong and Miss Cora Glover was on August 11th, and took place at the bride's home in Tacoma, Washington, announcement of which has been made before.
While in this vicinity Lieut. Furlong and his bride will visit his home folks and relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Thursday at 5:30 o'clock the Epico-pals and Catholics will line up in a struggle for supremacy in a benefit contest for the Monessen-Charleroi hospital. These teams finished in first and second places respectively, and a good game is expected.
Another game will be played later and a third in case one team does not run away with the first two contests.

Lanterns To Form Part of Decorations

The committees in charge of the preparations for Saturday's rally have asked that persons living along the route of parade decorate their homes.
The committees have not made any suggestions as to the nature of the decorations, but many are expecting to use Japanese and Chinese lanterns, which at night present a beautiful appearance.

FAREWELL DINNER TO COLLEGE MAN

Perce D. Pollock entertained at a "stag" dinner at his home on Lookout avenue last night in honor of Edward D. Butz, who, after spending the summer here, left this morning for his home in Wilkesbarre, and will later take up his studies as a senior at State College. There were about ten present and a pleasant evening was spent.

RED MEN TO HOLD BIG DEMONSTRATION

Arrangements are being completed for a big demonstration in Donora by the Red Men, in charge of Ahmeek's Tribe, No. 446, on October 7. Tribes from all over this section of the state will be represented, and an immense parade and sham battle are to be features.

Second Baseman Going Home

Edward Butz, of Wilkesbarre, who has been employed at the Charleroi Coal works during the summer left this morning for his home where he will visit previous to taking up his studies at State College. He played second base during the summer for the Lutheran team.

Plenty In Reserve.

"Why, Jack, where have you been?
You've got two black eyes."
"That's nothing," he replied. "I could have got plenty more, only I had no place to put them."

Pleasant.
Strange Guest—I don't know half the people in the room. Just look at that woman over there—the cross eyed, red headed one. And some one told me she was married. Don't you think the fellow was a fool? Other Guest (sneaking)—I know he was. I'm him.—Bald-

Talked Too Much.
Wife (reproachfully)—You forget how you once breathed your love in my ear and promised that my every wish should be gratified. Hub—No, I don't, but I wish now I'd followed the hygienic rule of keeping my mouth shut while breathing.—Boston Transcript.

A Real Nice Man.

Lady (in the art gallery)—Show me
the face of the woman you adore.
Salesman gallantly hands her a mirror.

Billiards.
"Have you heard the billiard coun-drum? Well, here it is:
"What made the red ball blush?
"Why, when it saw the two whites kiss in the corner."

Consistency.
Muriel—Do you consider engage-
